

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Annual Index-Digest of Law Reports for 1887 to 1894. Of Ontario, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Manitoba, Prince Edward Island, British Columbia, and Supreme Court of Canada. Published with the Canadian Law Times. 8 vols.
each $3, half-calf.

To increase the general satisfaction with which the Canadian Law Times has been received by the Profession since its first appearance fifteen years ago, the publishers arranged with the Editor of the Notes of Cases that the Index-Digests to vols. subsequent to VII. of the Canadian Law Times "Occasional Notes" shall be a Digest not only of the cases reported and notes in those vols., but also all the Reports of above named Courts. Many of the cases of great importance are not reported elsewhere than in the C. L. T. Where a case is to be found both in the Times and in a regular Report, the reference is to both.

It also gives a summary of such cases as may only appear in the Official Reports, thus making an Index and Digest of the Reported and Decided Cases from 1887 to 1895 for the Dominion of Canada.

CARTWRIGHT'S (J. R.) CONSTITUTIONAL CASES.—A collection of reported and unreported cases under the B. N. A. Act, decided in the Courts of the several Provinces and on Appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada. 4 vols., 1882-87. Each volume, half-calf, $8.

CLARKE'S (S. R.) LAW OF LANDLORD AND TENANT.—The most exhaustive work yet published on this most important branch of our jurisprudence. It cites not only all the cases decided in Great Britain and Ireland, but all those of the Provinces of Ontario, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Newfoundland, Manitoba, British Columbia, the North-West Territories and the Australian Colonies of Victoria and New South Wales. It is the only work containing all the American Cases during the past ten years. besides a judicious selection from the earliest times on all points not covered by our own. The author's researches through the American Reports alone have extended over 500 volumes. Special attention has however been given to our own authorities and they are abstracted with great fulness not only because of their relation to the subject but because they have not been embodied in any previous work. The author also claims that every English case decided during the last 30 years has been referred to whether in the Law Reports, Law Times, Law Journal or the Times Law Reports, though prior to 1865 a few cases have been omitted because they are so special in their facts as to be of little or no value. Frequent references have been made to the statute law of each Province in addition to that of Ontario. The book ought to be indispensable to the Canadian practitioner not only because it embraces as nearly as possible the whole law on the subject of Landlord and Tenant but also because the elaborate English and American works are largely inapplicable. 1895. Half-calf, $10.

CLARKE'S (S. R.) MAGISTRATE'S MANUAL—Third Edition founded on the Criminal Code, 1892, and the various Acts relating to the Rights, Powers and Duties of Justices of the Peace, with a summary of the Criminal Law, by S. R. Clarke, Barrister-at-Law, author of "The Criminal Law of Canada," "The Insolvent Act, 1875," and Amending Acts. Half-calf, $5.

CLEMENT'S CANADIAN CONSTITUTION, LAW OF.—By W. H. P. Clement, B.A., LL.B. (Toronto), Barrister-at-law. Cloth, $6; half-calf, $6.50.

This work is divided into: Part I., Introductory; Part II., The Results of Our Colonial Status; Part III., The Original Group; Part IV., Subsequent Growth.

Appendices comprising Colonial Laws Validity Act. Draft of Letters Patent, constituting the Office of Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada.

Draft of Instructions passed under the Royal Sign-Manual and Signet of the Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada.

Quebec Conference Resolutions of 1864, 626 to 646, which with Table of Cases Cited, Index to Statutes, etc., make a work of 668 pages.

The field covered by Mr. Clement's work may very fairly be said to be unoccupied. The number of Cases of which nearly 800 are cited, in which constitutional questions have arisen, would indicate that such a work is needed by every lawyer and parliamentarian.

"This work is the first comprehensive and scientific one on the law of our constitution, and will be found valuable throughout the Dominion, both as a text book for students and a book of reference."—Can. Law Journal, Nov. 16th, 1892.

"The advent of this able writer on the Constitution of Canada marks an era in the history of constitutional study. * * It is by far the most complete and comprehensive work yet attempted."—The Canada Law Times, Dec. 1892.

"To many who have often enquired how the Senate got or professed to exercise jurisdiction is now given the answer that a Divorce Bill is a Legislative Act originating in the Senate more by custom than as a matter of Right. * * * Mr. Gemmill has also shown us what will be most serviceable to the lawyer, namely, the laws of the various Provinces as to Marriage and Divorce."—Can. Law Times.

A collection of all important decisions reported in Canada and the Australian Colonies with a full digest, by W. H. Hunter, Barrister, author of Commentary on Insurance Corporations Act, 1892. To purchase the various reports where PUBLISHERS' NOTICE.

IN compiling this Catalogue, on the lines of that published by H. SWEET & SONS in 1883, it has been found necessary, in order to keep it within reasonable dimensions, to omit Law Books published in the United States.

The date has been placed against each book in the Index, a plan which has been much appreciated by those in search of the latest work on any subject.

The chronological lists of Reports have been carefully revised, but accurate information about Indian and Colonial Reports is still much needed, and would be welcomed by the compiler for future use.

April, 1895.
